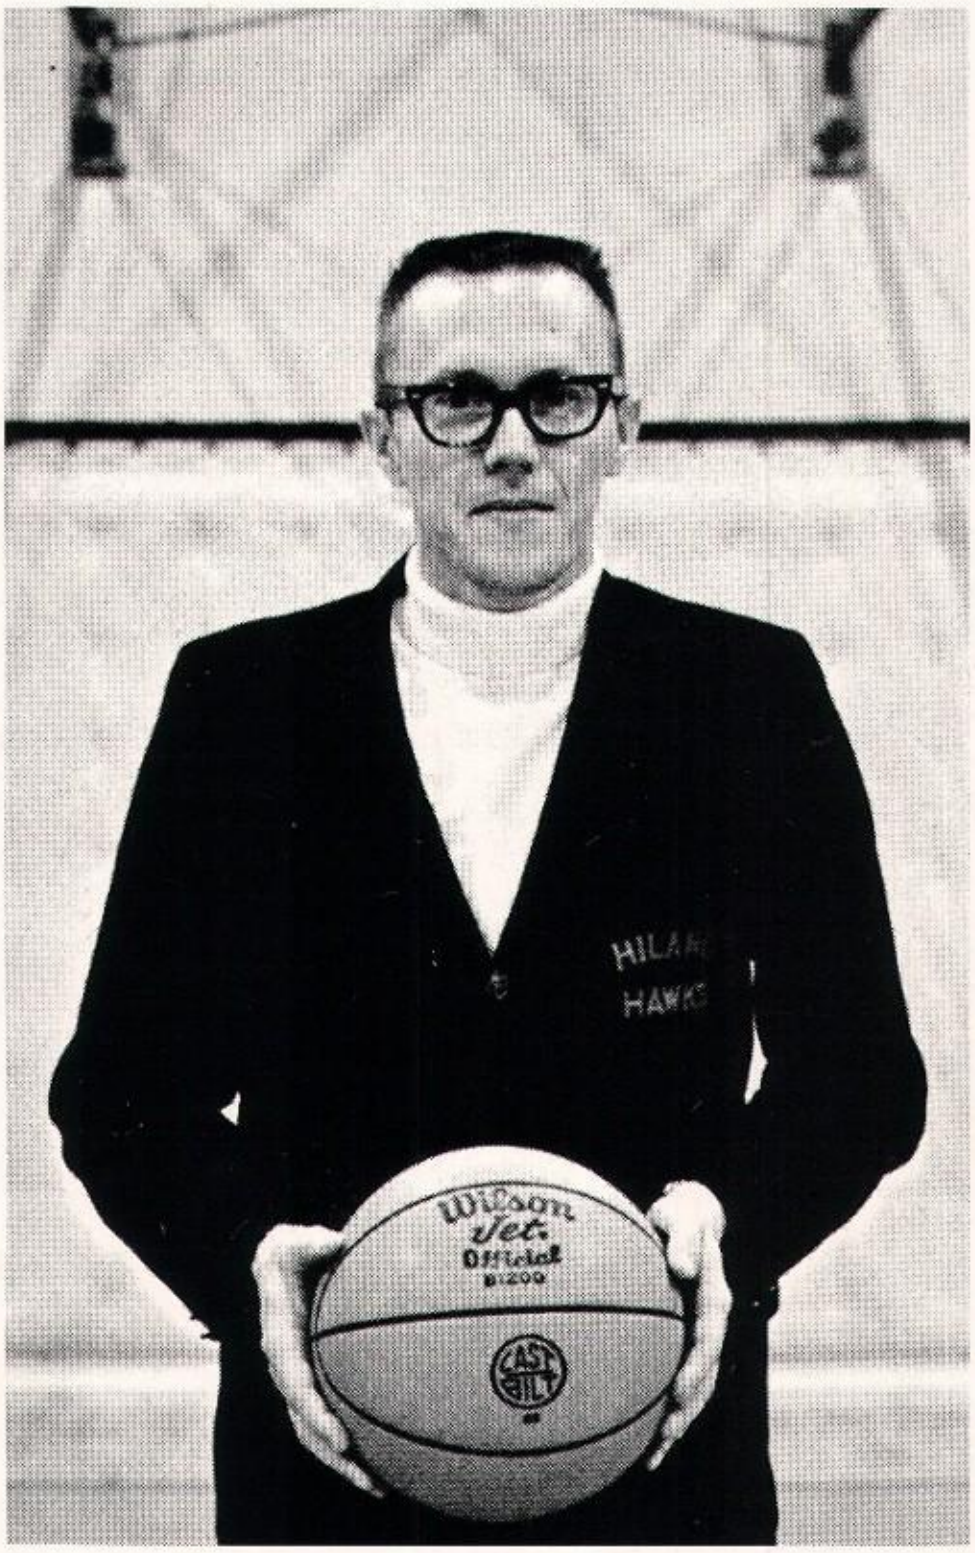
IN MEMORIAM



Early in the school year the students at Hiland felt the loss of a great teacher, leader, coach and friend. At this time we would like to remember Mr. Oren Thompson and all that he did for us. He gave of himself to enrich our lives and in doing so won our eternal respect and affection.

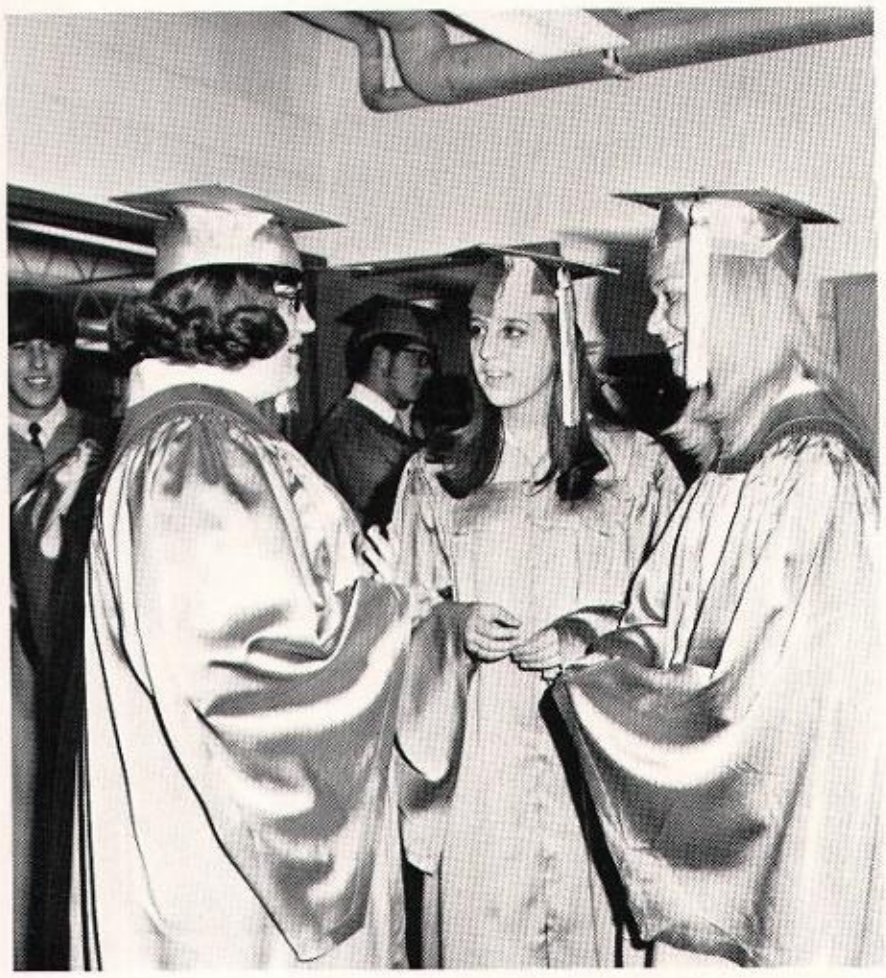
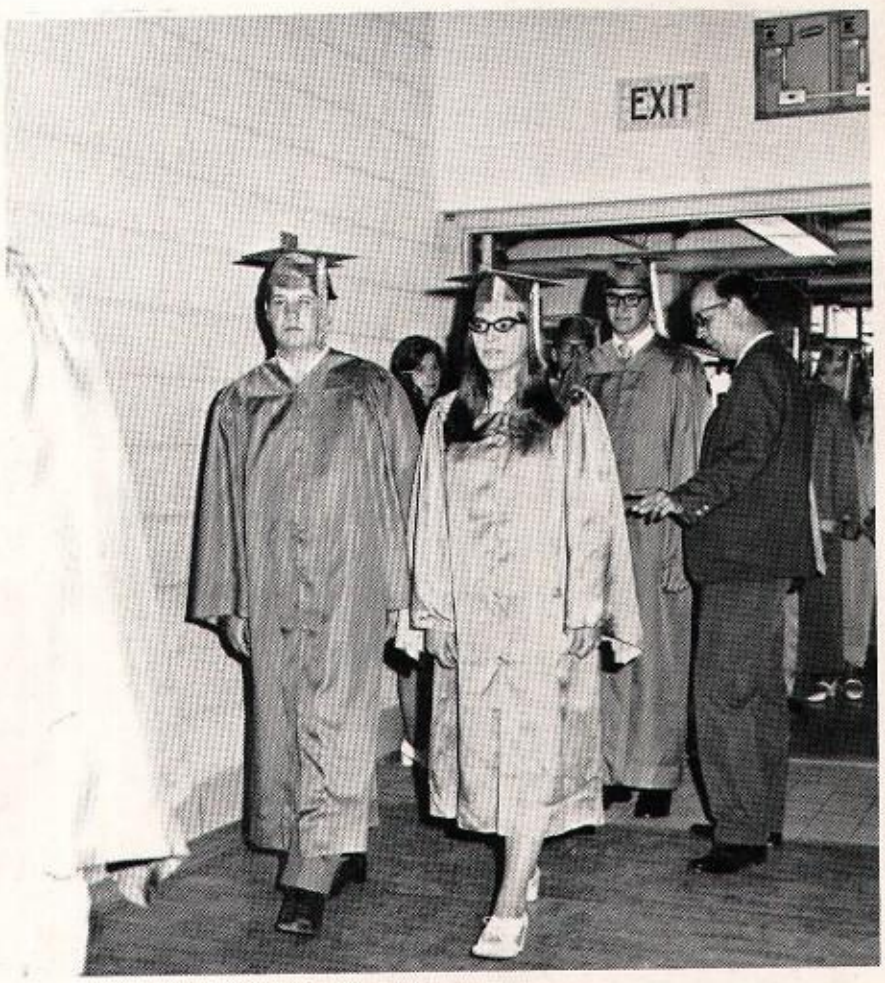
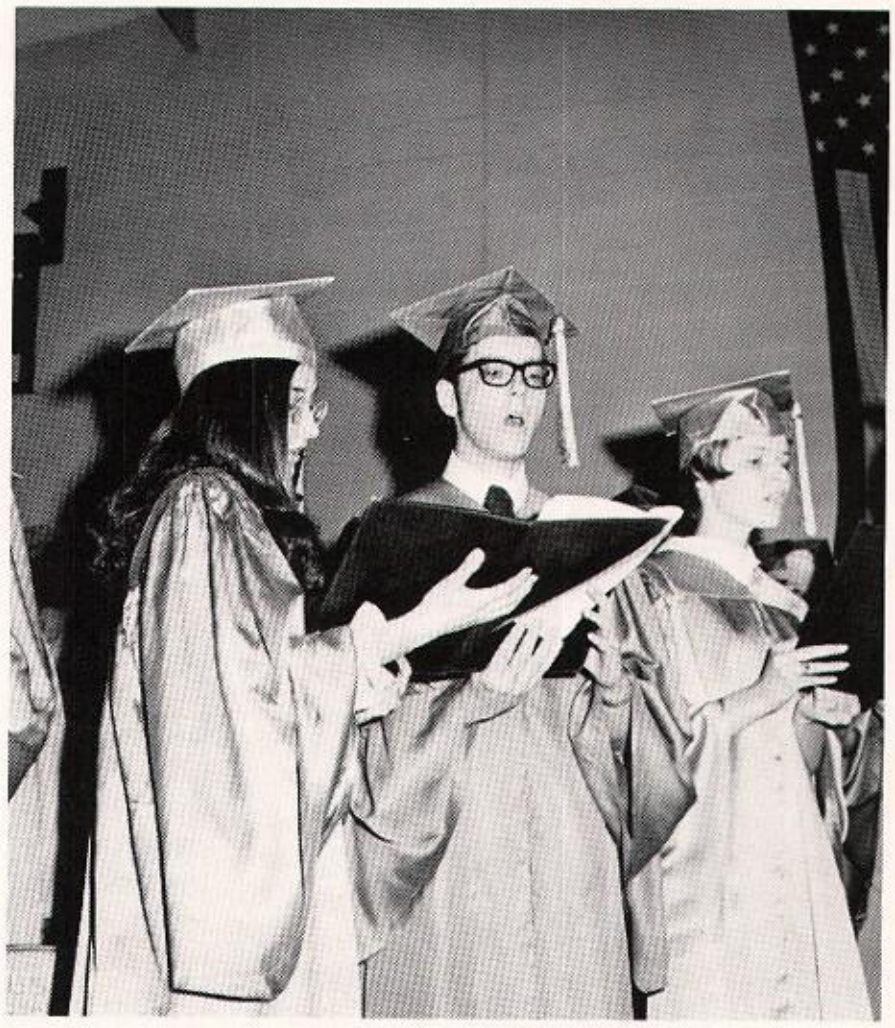
We Graduate



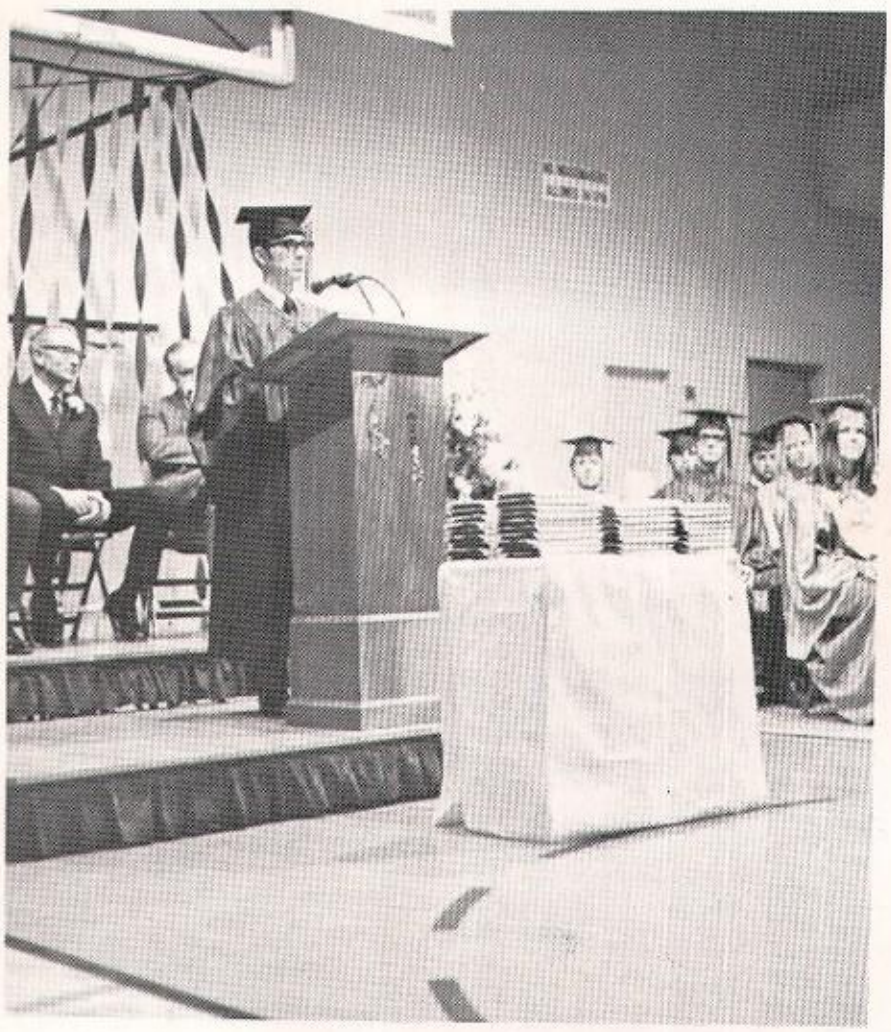
Ready for graduation, we wait.

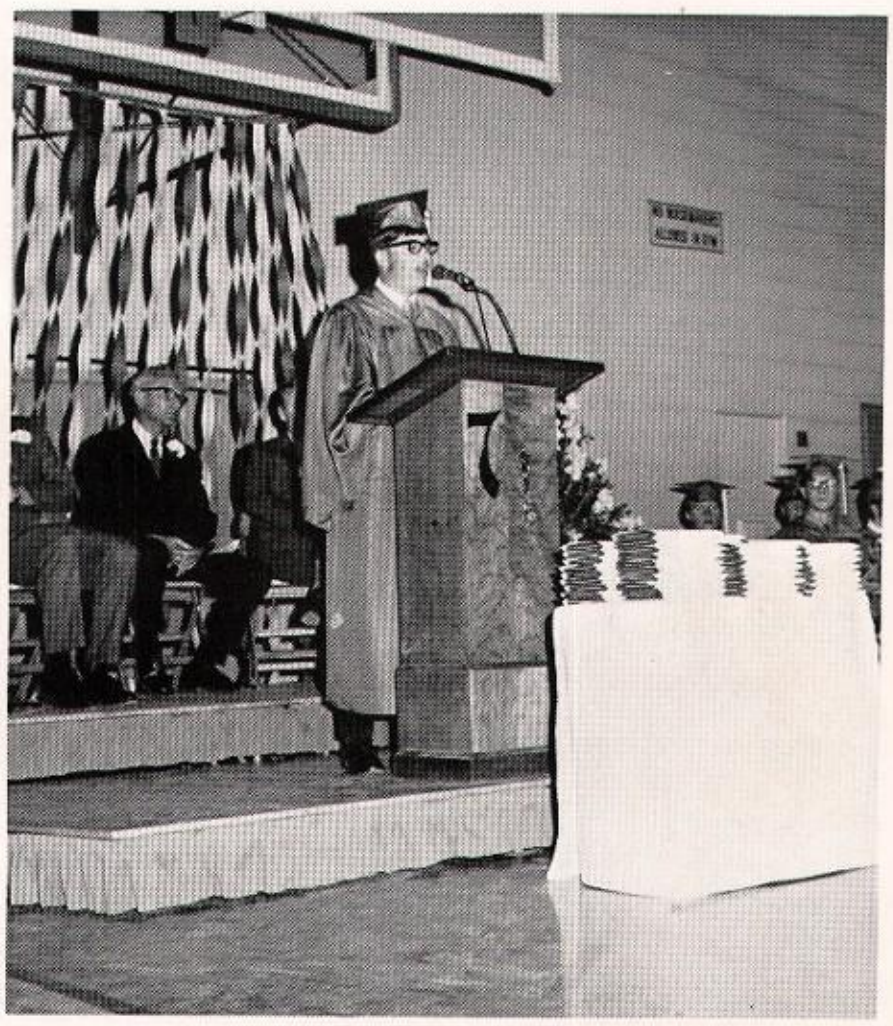


Our guests had arrived, and soon the music started.

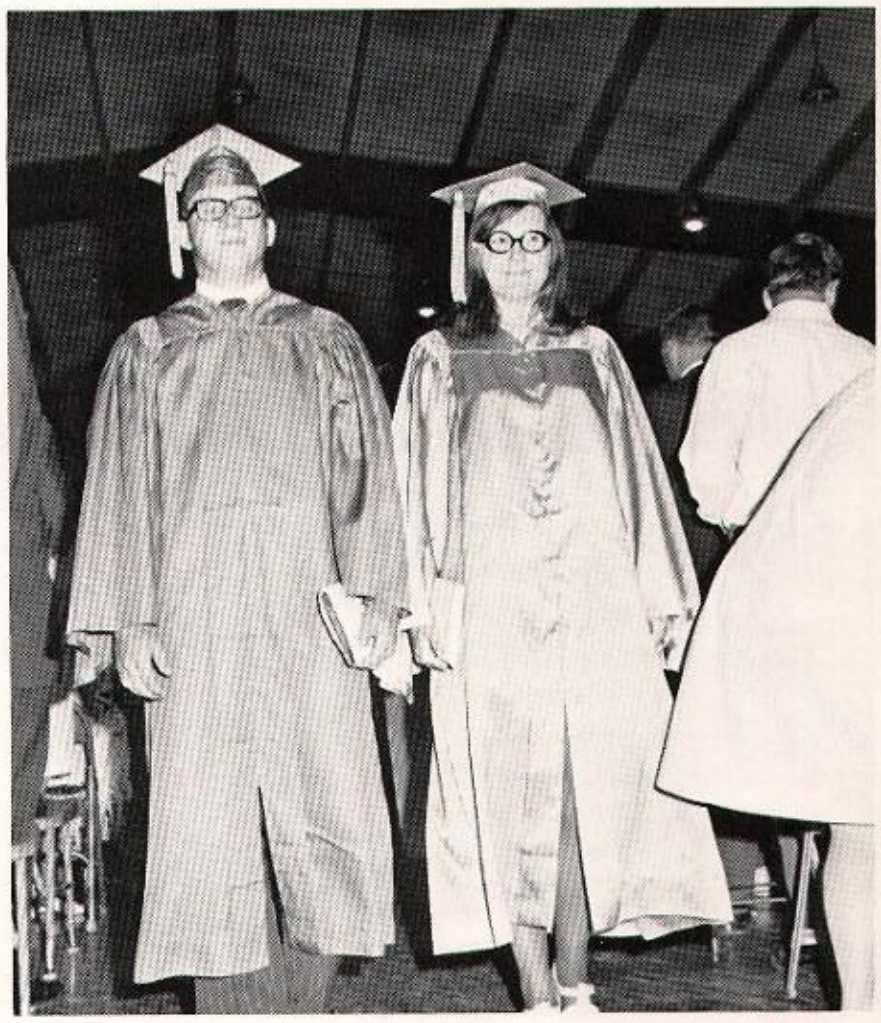


Dr. Charles L. Wood addressed us, then we sang together as a class.

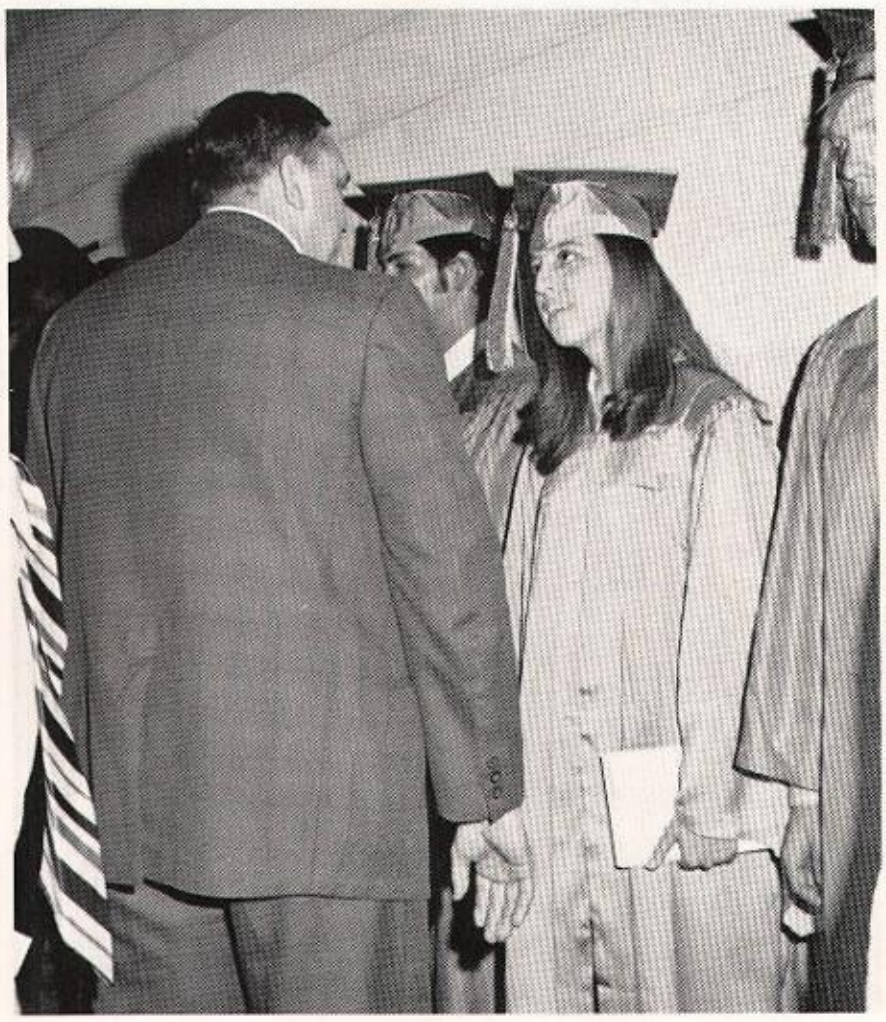




The last tributes were given by our valedictorian, Jim Miller, and our salutatorian, Gary Hostetler.



With diplomas in hand, we face the future,



knowing that our years at Hiland hold many memories.

FACULTY

Editors—Ruth E. Raber
Brenda Herman

The Senior's slogan, "Character is the Cornerstone of Success," I think could well be the slogan for all of us at Hiland High School.

To the graduating Seniors, we wish you the best of luck, and to the students returning, I would encourage you to take their slogan for your own.

The faculty at Hiland is to be commended for the fine manner in which they carry out their instructional tasks. Since their interests and concerns are not limited to the classroom, they also sponsor clubs and numerous other activities through which they develop desirable relationships with the students. Their cooperation and interest in each individual is indeed inspiring.
